THE DARK SECRET

The secret to effortless style is, as the dictionary would tell you, not looking like you're trying too hard. For a zero effort with high style returns, try darker tones on your jeans and jacket. It'll remove the need for heavy layering, letting the clothes do all the work for you.

CHECK THE COMBO
Balance the neutrals in your wardrobe with contrasting colours – you'll be surprised at how many interesting colour combinations you can come up with. But don't forget that function is just as important: the nylon shell on this bomber jacket is designed to withstand the harshest wind and rain.

NOT YOUR GRANDPA'S TEE

A Henley is a collarless T-shirt with a buttoned opening (your tailor calls it a "placket") below the neckline. In some ways it looks like your grandpa's undershirt – but that hardwearing, utilitarian edge is exactly why you should be wearing it. Get a long-sleeved, slightly faded (olive, navy and charcoal are good options) Henley that's a bit rough around the edges, and wear it under a denim shirt or jacket.
