style inspiration

Great lengths

Heritage checks are a huge trend, and soft textures in muted hues are an easy way to put a modern spin on this traditional print. It's a great pattern for disguising problem areas – pear shapes should wear it on the bottom. And never underestimate the power of a good scarf – the longer the better for extra style points this season.

Knit, R2 600, XS to L, Karen Millen. Skirt, R899, XS to XL; earrings, R249 for two pairs, both Zara. Scarf, R399, Forever New. Watch, R3 590, Folli Follie >>

Trailblazer

Did we mention corduroy is back in a big way? Thanks to the heavy fabric, a wide-legged pair of cords will flare out from the waist, skimming over the thighs. When it comes to styling them, checks and animal print are great partners, adding extra interest to your look. Treat them as neutrals and gain some serious wardrobe mileage.

Blazer, R1 399, XS to XL, Zara. Cashmere knit, R8 250, XS to L, Tiger of Sweden.

Polo neck, R299, XS to XL, LTD Woman at Truworths. Pants, R799, 34 to 44, H&M. Hat, R199, Jo Borkett. Ring, R1 190, Folli Follie. Boots, R2 890, Europa Art

In full bloom

A floaty, floral dress is a fashion fall safe, hides a multitude of sins, and won't date from season to season.

On cooler days, wear over a roll-neck knit to keep warm, without adding unnecessary bulk. Minimal accessories let the print take centre stage – think subtle gold jewellery and riding boots.

Dress, R2 299, 6 to 14, Witchery at Woolworths. Knit, R999, S to L, Jo Borkett. Ring, R899, Felli Follie >>
