

SAADIQUE

Bio

South African multi award-winning hairstylist

Saadique Ryklief has earned the reputation of being one of the country's most forward - thinking, innovative hair fashion designers, perceived as pushing boundaries in hair design.

Saadique started his career by establishing his own salon, later realising the need for a hair artiste in the fashion industry and has since evolved into a true tastemaker and trendsetter in the industry

Saadique has contributed significantly to premier events such as De Beers, Anglo Gold Jewellery and featured as Head of Design (Hair) for Nokia Face of Africa, which kicked off in Africa and was later taken globally to London, New York and Paris.

He has been showcased in numerous magazines, is passionate about his craft, and has been instrumental in the development of various methods of creativity all the while seeking synergies for hair and fashion to complement each other.

He has worked with Naomi Campbell, Charlize Theron, Kelly Rowland, Elizabeth Hurley, Shakira, Alicia Keys and The Kardashians.

. One of his future objectives is to establish a hairstyling school that grooms the talents of future star stylists.

