Sandy escapes tend to loosen the restraints of a typical wedding dress code, giving you a chance to mix up your outfit. You'll want a light, unconstructed suit that'll let you breathe easy when the temps pick up. Playing with a monochromatic theme—donning multiple shades of the same colour—can make even the most casual attire look polished. Our recs? Try a light-hued seasonal suit in cream, beige or pink paired with a relaxed shirt. And skip the tie and Oxfords; sneakers or Espadrilles will fit right in when you're oceanside.

Welcome to tuxedo territory. Your move: opt for a classic black variant of the 007-approved ensemble. Fortunately, premium fabrics won't break the bank; you can find great quality threads at spots like Zara and Bride & Co. Fit is king, so make sure you're getting the right size. If you want a more contemporary get-up, go with a navy blue slim-fit suit without the bibbed tuxedo shirt. Underneath, grab a simple black shirt and tie. Shoes? Your best black lace-ups will fit the bill.
