

POPPY NTSHONGWANA

Bio

Broadcaster | Creator

As one of South Africa's leading Radio Broadcasters and Entertainers, having been with radio giant 5FM for 10 successful years, Poppy Ntshongwana has finally come into her own.

A true brand ambassador, Poppy was revealed as the first ever face of Superga in Africa. This opportunity and the success of the partnership led to her releasing her very own range in collaboration with the brand.

Poppy's love for sport led her into the world of sportscasting and in early 2019 she became the first South African female stadium announcer at the Wanderers cricket Stadium and was soon snapped up as a presenter for Supersport.

A lover of Fitness and Health, she has worked with various brands as a Fitness and Health collaborator and content creator.

Poppy currently runs a digital content production company - Poppy Ntshongwana Communications.

As a talented Broadcaster, a sought after MC and DJ, health enthusiast and Entrepreneur, Poppy describes herself as a hardworking, well-rounded and conscientious person, who loves learning, people and adventure.
