

ISABELA GRUTMAN

Bio

Gorgeous Isabela hails from Belo Horizonte in Brazil and started working as a model in 2006.

She has travelled and worked all over the globe and has truly made herself a global citizen.

Isabella lived in South Africa for four years where she studied fashion design.

In 2012 she moved to Paris due to the high demand from French clients where she was then forced to travel between New York and Paris on an almost weekly basis.

She has since settled in New York and continues to work with the industry's most coveted brands and photographers.
