UM AMERICANO EM NOVA IORQUE

Armando Cabral, 24 anos, filho de imigrantes vindos da Guiné e natural da Amadora, trabalha em Nova Iorque há um ano e meio. Antes, morava em Londres e estudava Gestão de Empresas até ao dia em que um amigo lhe sugeriu tentar a sorte como modelo. É verdade que Armando já se tinha aventurado por essa área em Portugal, mas não deu em nada. Assim, foi com pouca esperança que se apresentou numa pequena agência da capital britânica. Contudo, poucos dias depois, teve uma agradável surpresa quando recebeu um telefonema informando-o de que tinha sido seleccionado para um trabalho. Só que não era um trabalho qualquer, Armando ficou na mira das lentes de um dos fotógrafos de moda mais cotados da actualidade: Nick Knight. E o seu "trabalho", um editorial, acabou por ser uma sessão de moda para a revista de culto I-D. Um bom começo, com certeza.

Depois de vários trabalhos na Europa e nos EUA, para Melvin Pot Jeans, Benetton e Alexander McQueen entre tantos outros, Armando pensou em mudar-se para Nova Iorque e ingressou numa das grandes agências americanas, a IMG Models - a agência de Gisele Bündchen e Heidi Klum. Agora, Armando é um dos top models daquela agência e já fez uma campanha para a Dior, um desfile exclusivo para a Calvin Klein e já "contracanou" com Helena Christensen. Hoje, do seu apartamento em New Jersey, desfruta de uma vista panorâmica sobre o Rio Hudson e Manhattan, mas confessa que passa pouco tempo na cidade, pois está sempre em viagem, entre campanhas e desfiles. E a próxima paragem? Depois da Semana da Moda de Nova Iorque, vem a Lisboa visitar a família. "A minha mãe está com muitas saudades, pronto. E eu também", diz Armando.
